

HISTORICAL PREMILLENNIALIST BIBLE TEACHERS & SCHOLARS – MIKE BICKLE
BOOK OF REVELATION SERIES

Historic premillennialism (not to be confused with dispensational premillennialism) has been a commonly held view throughout church history. I will name a few Bible teachers who held to historic premillennialism. This list could be much longer.

Historic premillennialist teachers from the first few centuries include (Date indicates the approximate year of death):

- Justin Martyr (165 AD)
- Papias (155 AD)
- Tertullian (220 AD)
- Commodianus (240 AD)
- Victorinus of Petau (304 AD)
- Methodius (312 AD)
- Lactantius (325 AD)

Prominent historic premillennialist voices from the last 200 years include:

- Charles Spurgeon
- Horatius Bonar
- Andrew Bonar
- J. C. Ryle
- Robert Murray M'Cheyne
- Nathaniel West
- Hudson Taylor
- Adolph Saphir
- David Baron
- George Mueller
- A. T. Pierson
- S. P. Tregelles
- Benjamin Mills Newton
- George Eldon Ladd
- Walter Martin
- John Warwick Montgomery
- J. Barton Payne
- Henry Alford (the noted Greek scholar)
- Theodore Zahn
- John Gill
- Francis Schaeffer
- Henry Alford
- R.A. Torrey
- A. R. Faussett
- J. Barton Payne
- F. F. Bruce.

Contemporary Historic Premillennialists include:

- John Piper
- J.O. Buswell
- J. Barton Payne
- R. Laird Harris
- Barry Horner
- Jim Hamilton
- Al Mohler
- John Warwick Montgomery
- Roger E. Olson
- Wayne Grudem
- Millard Erickson
- Russell D. Moore
- Craig L. Blomberg
- Gordon Clark.